

Monticello/Wayne County

Chamber of Commerce

IS PLEASED TO BRING YOU OUR ANNUAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
CHRISTMAS PARADE
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2007

Each year, on the first Friday of December, the Monticello/Wayne County Chamber of Commerce holds its annual Christmas Parade. The parade is an opportunity to usher in the holidays, while giving the citizens of Wayne County and the surrounding area a chance to gather and celebrate the season.

This year's parade theme is "The Miracle of CHRISTmas" and serving as Grand Marshal is Ms. Tommy Duncan.

Your participation is important to the success of this event. We encourage all businesses, clubs, organizations, schools and churches to participate by creating a float entry. There are several categories for float entries with nice cash prizes!

Enclosed you will find an Entry form, Rules and Regulations, and an Acceptance of Entry form. It is crucial that you thoroughly read, and understand, all rules and regulations. Make sure everyone participating with your entry is aware of the line-up and pick-up routes, including the parents and/or guardians of your participants. We need your help in creating a safe and fun event for everyone involved.

Entry deadline is Wednesday, November 28, 2007.

NOTE: Entries received Nov 29-Dec 6 will be charged a late fee.
NO ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEC 7th.

In cooperation with Community Telecom Services and Pro/Video-Audio Productions, we are pleased to bring a live broadcast of the Christmas Parade on Channel 8 television.
